

Previous Events

2015

BOOKS BRIDGE OUR SENSES/LOS LIBROS CONECTAN NUESTROS SENTIDOS. The Henry Art Gallery will host a poetry reading by three local writers: Catalina M. Cantú, Raúl Sánchez and special guest Seattle Civic Poet Claudia Castro Luna, who will each read works reflecting on and inspired by the Pablo Helguera: Librería Donceles art installation currently on display at The Henry.

Encanto Live Album Release Event - La Sala & Club Sur are partnering to bring you José Iñiguez's "Encanto Live" Album Release Event. José Iñiguez, an Opera Tenor - one of too few Latino Opera Tenor's in the Country - will release his first album on August 2nd, 2015 at an inspiring event held at Club Sur!

Butoh in Latin America. La Sala and DAIPANbutoh Collective are proud to present this talk and performance. Joan Laage, Helen Thorsen, Kaoru Okumura and Diana Garcia-Snyder will talk about the roots of Japanese Butoh and how it has been spreading around the world including Latin America.

Visual Ecologies and Solidarities: Art Across the Americas, in partnership with the University of Washington's Comparative History of Ideas, at Fulgencio Lazo Studio. Co-sponsors: French and Italian Studies, Latin American and Caribbean Studies, the Simpson Center for the Humanities, Spanish and Portuguese Studies, the School of Art, UW Honors, IPE, and the Office of Global Affairs.

Latino and Filipino Poets Explore Cultural Mythologies in partnership with Pinoy Words Expressed Kultura Arts (PWEKA) will present poets who will consider the influence of Latino and Filipino mythology on poetry. Poets: Roberto Ascalon, Jim Cantú, Lorna Dee Cervantes, Gabriella Gutiérrez y Muhs, Emily Lawsin, Sam Rodrick Roxas-Chua, Artistic Director: Robert Flor Venues: Seattle Public Library and Seattle University's MeChA and United Filipino Club student groups.

2014

Sílabas de viento/Syllables of Wind and Conjuro: Exploring Linguistic Diversity among Latin@s, International Award winning author, poet, and artist Xánath Caraza will read from her bilingual poetry collection at Hugo House.

Plex-us - Composer Jovino Santos Neto and visual artist Michelle de la Vega team up in a collaboration to create large scale sculpture and sound installation titled Plex-us about Seattle's South Park neighborhood, featuring contributions by youth and community members. CoCA Gallery in the Seattle Design Center.

Arte de los Encuentros - Artwork of Eduardo Calderon and Fay Jones - Poetry (Spanish) by Edgar O'Hara, at Casa Latina.

Printmaking in Mexico – An evening of discussion on printmaking in Mexico with artist Mercedes Lopez (skype from Oaxaca), Jesus Perez - Professor of Latin American History, Chris Gildow - Professor of Art (both from Cascadia), and Deborah Kaplow, Professor of Art History, UW Bothell.

Artists Up! at Fulgencio Lazo's Studio. La Sala in partnership with Artists Up will hold a networking event for Latino/a artists, friends and supporters.

VIVA! Celebrating Latino/a Art, Activism and Life - The University of Washington School of Social Work Art Committee and La Sala present a vibrant collection of paintings, mixed media work and photographs in the first floor gallery from eight local Latino/Latina artists.

2012

Rooted: Latino/a artist's connection to native & adopted lands – Visual art exhibition and literary event at Columbia City Gallery - Visual exhibition curated by Juan Alonso-Rodriguez - Literary Event curated by Wendy Call

2011

Lit Twice / Luminado Dos Veces – Writers present new literary pieces in response to an exhibition of Latin American art jewelry at Bellevue Arts Museum, for the Arts Crush festival.

Book release for Wendy Call and Donna Miscolta at Vermillion Art Gallery, Seattle.

2010

Recuerdos de las Mujeres/Women Remembering Women - Four local writers offer literary remembrances for Day of the Dead - ArtXchange Gallery, Seattle.

¡SENSE US 2010! Ten Contemporary Latino Artists of the Pacific Northwest - ArtXchange Gallery, Seattle. In the important Census year, La Sala and ArtXchange Gallery partner for a group exhibition showcasing the diversity of Latino/a/x art in the Pacific Northwest.

2009

Sostenibilidad/Sustainability - Visual art exhibit, Benham Gallery, Seattle

2008

Grantwriting Workshop Series, Seattle Public Library

Tools for Creating Cultural Hubs - A full-day symposium at Youngstown Cultural Arts Center.

Networking Socials at KCTS Channel 9 and Artist Trust